

Msgr. Daniel
Deutsch
Pastor, Holy Cross
Church, Batavia

had me attend the Light of the World retreat.

Favorite saint

St. Phillip Neri. He is a great and easily accessible priestly example.

Advice for young people considering a vocation

The priestly vocation is demanding but filled with joy and satisfaction — every day is infinitely different than every other day. To young people — the Catholic faith is radical, counter-cultural and the ultimate way to be a non-conformist.

Something about you few people would know

I drive too fast, but am trying to slow down.

Favorite prayer

Anima Christi, for its content and poetry

What has been a holy moment for you in your priesthood?

Offering the Mass with Pope John Paul II in his private chapel

What have you learned from your brother priests?

Msgr. Robert Hoffman taught me to visit the grade school; Msgr. Sylvester Eye

Favorite hobby or pastime

Reading, running and walking

Favorite temporal things

The movie “Lord of the Rings,” any book by David McCullough; The History Channel and “Modern Marvels.”

Favorite food

DiGiorno frozen cheese pizza — the indispensable part of a priest’s menu.