

Our Men in Black

Father Robert
Garrity
Director of Campus Ministry and Adjunct Theology
Professor, Ave Maria University in Florida

pro-life and a saint.

What have you learned from your brother priests?

Father Alquin Deck, OSB, told me I'd always be happy if I loved the Blessed Sacrament and Our Lady, and he was right.

Advice for young people considering a vocation

Be not afraid. God will take you where you need to be. Ministry is exciting and never boring. People are good.

Something about you few people would know

Favorite prayer

Silent meditation before the Blessed Sacrament; this gives me strength, joy and peace.

Favorite saint

St. Anthony of Padua; he finds lost objects when I pray, "Holy Tony, come around; something's lost that can't be found."

What has been a holy moment for you in your priesthood?

Burying Dr. Walter Watts, M.D., who was 100 percent

My favorite dinner is Mexican food.

Favorite hobby or pastime

Golf and reading.

Favorite temporal things

Movie: "A Man For All Seasons"; Book: "The Cloud of Unknowing"; Team: Chicago Bears

Favorite food

I make a mean carnepiz-ziole, with chunks of meat in tomato sauce over penne pasta.
