“Vocation is . . .

a voice with a singular accent, mysterious, but unmistakable, grave and delicate at the same time, calm and powerful.

a voice which is at the same time an invitation and an order.

a voice simple as a sigh and profound as a drama.

Christ’s voice, today too, today more than ever, says, “Come follow me!”

~ Pope Paul VI

“Those who are called to the priesthood or consecrated life can welcome the seed of vocation that God has placed in their hearts with a generous openness. Drawing them to follow Christ with an undivided heart, the Father invites them to be joyful and free apostles of the kingdom. In the generous response to the invitation they will find that true happiness for which their heart is longing.”

~Pope John Paul II
